

FINLANDIA FOUNDATION OF COLORADO

The Finlandia Foundation of Colorado (FFC) is a non-profit organization dedicated to the support and preservation of Finnish culture in the Rocky Mountain region. Membership is open to anyone interested in our purpose and events.

FFC hosts on average four events a year for its members. The events may include member luncheons, Christmas party (family event and dinner), Vappu (First of May) picnic, fall foliage bus trip, concerts and lectures on topics relating to Finland and Finns in the USA. In addition, FFC produces an electronic newsletter four times a year and regularly emails event notices and other information to its members.

Next events: Culture Day luncheon at Mt. Vernon Canyon Club, Saturday 2/23/19
Vappu Picnic at Ken Caryl Dakota Lodge, Sunday 4/28/19
